

THE OPEN DIPLOMACY INSTITUTE HAS SELECTED THE 7 YOUNG DELEGATES

WHO WILL REPRESENT FRANCE AT THE G20/G7

Paris, Washington DC, 11.02.2021, 02:31 Time

USPA NEWS - The Open Diplomacy Institute organized from January 28 to 31, 2021 the Forum Devenir Delegate with the support of the Ministry of Europe and Foreign Affairs and in partnership with HEIP. It involved examining the 593 applications received to join the French delegation at Y20 and Y7. The France team is made up this year of 7 delegates, 3 participants in the Milan Youth G20 organized in July, and 4 representatives in the Youth G7 scheduled for London in May 2021. The Open Diplomacy Institute examined each of the 593 applications, 45% of which passed the Forum Devenir Délégué tests, two days of negotiation simulation and an individual interview for each candidate. "To succeed in mobilizing so many candidates when the morale of the French, and young people in particular, is very low, it was a feat. We broke a record in terms of both the quantity and diversity of applicants, following a two-month recruitment campaign open to all." Explains Marie-Sixte Imbert, Director of Operations at the Open Diplomacy Institute.

“The eleventh French delegation to the Y20 and Y7 will be rich in the skills and maturity shown by our seven recruits. The Open Diplomacy Institute, which created and chaired the Y20 during the French presidency of the G20 in 2011, and which chaired the Y7 during the French presidency of the G7, is proud to welcome talented young people to this exceptional political adventure. They are ready to travel the country to bring the voice of young people to the world. It is essential that this voice be carried with force, because the 'COVID Generation' is not a 'Sacrificed Generation' but will clearly be a 'Traumatized Generation'! We need young leaders with a cool head and a warm heart to tackle the problem at the G20 and G7 table. Summarizes Thomas Friang, Founder and CEO of the Open Diplomacy Institute.
